

Caron Wright – Director of the Constellation Trust (TCT)

Caron Wright achieved a Business Studies Diploma at Hull College of Commerce in 1974 and worked for a number of years in a range of business organisations including the NHS before embarking on a career in teaching. In 1983, following completion of a teaching qualification, Caron was appointed to the post of Lecturer in the School of Business at Hull College.

After a number of years working as a Lecturer, Caron was successful in obtaining a number of management posts including Curriculum Leader and then Head of School where she raised standards in teaching and learning and improving the quality of the student experience. In 2012 Caron successfully completed a Master's Degree in Leadership and Management and was appointed to the post of Assistant Principal (Higher Education) where she led the Higher Education strategy for the Hull College Group. Caron worked in this role for over 2 years but recently achieved her lifetime ambition in being appointed to the post of Principal at Goole College in 2015.

As a strong supporter of educating young people, Caron was delighted to join the Board of Directors at Sirius Academy in 2014.
