

Andy Dulson - Personal Development and Safeguarding Lead

Andy read Geography and History at Liverpool University and graduated in 1994. He then took a gap year travelling and worked in the United States for 6 months. On his return to the UK he decided to explore the other end of the M62 corridor and completed a Post Graduate Certificate in Education at Hull University in Geography and Physical Education.

In 2000 he took his first management position and in 2009 joined the Leadership team at Sirius Academy. In his 25 years, in the education sector, he has undertaken a broad range of leadership roles. This included a brief secondment, supporting a local secondary school, as Interim Principal in 2013 and a secondment to the local authority to lead on attendance in 2018/19. During this time he also successfully completed his NPQH (2017)

Andy joined the Sirius Academy Multi Academy Trust in 2016 before finally taking up position in the Constellation Trust, in his current role in September 2019.

Andy is passionate about ensuring that all pupils are given the opportunities and the environment in which they can thrive and grow. Working relentlessly with schools to ensure they have the capacity to address any barriers to learning that pupils and their families may face.
