

Andrea Young - PA to CEO

Andrea has over 25 years' experience in the retail and public sectors in a variety of roles including management in retail and as a Clinical Audit Facilitator for the NHS.

In 2004, Andrea moved into the education sector and worked at Sydney Smith School for 5 years before joining Sirius Academy West in 2009. The roles at both schools were varied and included management of staff cover and PA to the Head of Sirius Academy West, later moving across to the Constellation Trust in 2016, clerking for the Trust Board and working as PA to the Trust CEO.

As the Trust has expanded, the role has become more extensive and in addition to being PA to the Trust CEO, Andrea supports the Trust Central team, Trustees and the Heads of the 10 schools when and where required. The knowledge and skills gained over the years in different roles and sectors has assisted her in the current role and in contributing to the success of the Trust.

Training and qualifications have been undertaken in all roles and includes more recently, successfully achieving the ICSA Accreditation in Clerking of School and Academy Governing Boards.
