

Lynn Brattan – Director of the Constellation Trust

Lynn has been involved in education since 1991 firstly working in the Library and office of a secondary school with a brief spell in Adult Social Care. In 2001 Lynn became Administration & Finance Manager in a Hull Primary School and worked there until leaving in 2016 to peruse a life of leisure and charity work. Lynn's main role was managing the schools finance supporting the Headteacher and Governors. Other duties included monitoring and evaluating pupil attendance, data statistics, health & safety and staff management and bid writing which led to many successes.

Lynn became a member of a number of committees including the Schools Forum, Finance Steering Committee and Hull Catering.

Lynn has a strong background in education, finance and in governance from being on both ends of Ofsted, working in a school and being a Governor and Chair also within different types of settings.

Lynn's belief is that no matter what education setting learning is delivered in, it is important. that governance plays a huge part in ensuring delivery of the best education possible to help pupils achieve and succeed.
