

Nicola Rhodes - Director of the Constellation Trust

Nicola Rhodes is family law solicitor specialising in all aspects of children law and domestic violence. Nicola qualified as a solicitor in 2010 and is a member of the Law Society. She has been accredited to be able to represent both parents and children in complex public law proceedings involving Local Authorities seeking to remove children from their parents. Some of her clients are often the most vulnerable in society.

As a result of her job Nicola has a good understanding of safeguarding issues for children and understands how unstable family life can impact upon a child and effect every aspect of his or her life. Nicola is dedicated to ensuring that every child deserves the right to have an opportunity to a quality education irrespective of race; gender social or economic status

Nicola comes from a family who have dedicated themselves to delivering education to children of all ages. Between 2005 and 2007 Nicola was a regular supply teacher at Pickering High School in Hull before embarking on her training to become a solicitor.”
